ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION

O F T H E

F O S T E R M A N T O N L I B R A R Y .

WHEREAS, the General Assembly of the State of Rhode Island and Providence Plantations, at their June Session, A. D. 1847 passed an Act entitled an Act to provide for the voluntary incorporation of Library, Academy and School Associations.

And Whereas, Amasa Manton Esq., of the City and County of Providence, in the State aforesaid, has offered the sum of One Hundred Dollars to the citizens of the Town of Foster, for the purchase of books, for the establishment of a Library in said Town, provided that an equal amount be raised by subscription for the same purpose. And in order to form a Library Corporation in said town in conformity to the aforesaid Act of the General Assembly, and to receive and realize the benefit of the liberal donation of the said Amasa Manton Esq., there has been a much larger amount already raised by subscription, for the purpose aforesaid, than was required to be raised by the donor, to enable the subscribers to receive the benefit of said donation. And the said subscribers believing that the unexampled prosperity, unanimity and liberty, for the enjoyment of which this nation is eminently distinguished among the nations of the earth, are to be inscribed (next to the blessing of God) to the general diffusion of knowledge and information among the people; and that the establishment of a Library of well selected books will materially aid the people of said Town and vicinity, (and more especially the younger classes) in the acquirement of useful knowledge, do hereby associate ourselves together and form a body politic and corporate, with perpetual succession, under the name of the "FOSTER MANTON LIBRARY SOCIETY," that they, and their successors may be made capable in law, by that name to receive, hold, control and convey real and personal estate, as provided for in the aforesaid act of the General Assembly, and to be subject, and in conformity, in all respects thereto, under the provisions, conditions and restrictions that shall be made, and provided by the Constitution, to be adopted by this Corporation, and the By-Laws that shall be hereafter made in conformity thereto, and with the law of the State.

At a meeting of the FOSTER MANTON LIBRARY ASSOCIATION, holden at Foster, in the county of Providence, and State of Rhode Island, on the 12th day of January, A. D. 1848, it is voted that the foregoing articles of Association be adopted as, and for the articles of Association, for the formation of a Corporation under the name of the FOSTER MANTON LIBRARY SOCIETY.

Witness,

MOWRY P. ARNOLD, Secretary.

CONSTITUTION

FOSTER MANTON LIBRARY SOCIETY.

SECTION 1. The FOSTER MANTON LIBRARY shall be permanently located and established at the Hemlock Village, in the Town of Foster, and branches therefrom, or agencies may be located and established at such other places in said Town, and its vicinity, as shall be determined on, at any legal meeting of said Society, by a majority of voters present, and voting on the question. And such portions of the books belonging to said Society, as shall be ordered and determined on by the board of directors of said Society, may, from time to time be removed from the Library to said branches or agencies, and remain there for distribution to the members of said Society, by an agent Librarian, for a term not to exceed three months at one time before they are to be returned to the Library, to be exchanged for other books. But in case agencies are established, on or before the first Monday of March, A. D. 1848, the books may be removed to the agency or agencies established, immediately thereafter, and remain there till the first Monday of May.

SEC. 2. Shares, or rights in said Library shall be One Dollar each. And all persons who have paid one dollar, or who shall hereafter pay that amount to the Librarian, shall be a member of said Society, together with all others who shall hereafter become owners of one share each by heirship, purchase or otherwise, clear from fines, penalties and taxes, and shall be entitled to vote in person or by proxy, in all questions that shall arise and be determined, in any legal meeting of said Society while being a member of said Corporation, and be eligible to office, and all transfers of shares or rights in said Library shall be recorded in the books of the Corporation, and all such transfers of shares shall entitle holders thereof to all the rights, privileges and immunities in the Corporation that the assignors had therein at the time of the transfers, and nothing more, and such shares shall be subject to all fines, penalties and taxes attached thereto, and shall not entitle the holder to the rights of becoming members of the Corporation until all such fines, penalties and taxes are paid and discharged.

SEC. 3. In all legal meetings of said Corporation, seven members shall constitute a quorum, and the determination of a majority of those present, in person, or by proxy, shall be conclusive upon the Corporation, excepting on questions relating to alterations or amendments of this Constitution.

SEC. 4. There shall be an annual meeting of said Corporation holden on the first Monday of June, in each and every year, commencing on the first Monday of June 1848, for the election of officers, and for doing and transacting any other legal business. At which meeting there shall be annually elected, a Chairman, Secretary, Librarian, who shall be ex-officio, Treasurer, three or more Directors and two Auditors, also, two Agent Directors for each branch or agency. The first appointed to be also agent Librarian for such branch, with power to substitute the other Director to act as agent Librarian in his absence. And may also elect all such other officers as shall be found necessary for the management of said Library, and corporate property. All of which said officers of annual appointment, shall hold their offices for one year, and until their successors shall be qualified to act. And all vacancies in office occasioned by death, resignation, removal, neglecting or refusing to serve, or otherwise, may be filled by appointments being made at any legal meetings of said Corporation, and all other officers which shall be found necessary for the management of said Library, and corporate property, others than those above named, may also be appointed at any legal meeting of said Corporation, and shall hold their offices until the next annual meeting for the election of officers, and until their successors are qualified to act. And the Librarian shall have power to substitute some other suitable person to act as Librarian in his room when he shall necessarily be absent, or unable to attend to the duties of his office. And the first meeting of this Corporation for the election of officers shall be holden at No. 8 School House, on the 22d day of January, A. D. 1848, at 1 o'clock, P. M., and the officers then elected, shall hold their offices until the first Monday in June, A. D. 1848, and until their successors are qualified to act.

SEC. 5. The shares or rights in said Library shall not be subject to taxation until the first Monday of June 1851, nor shall said shares be then or thereafter taxed to an amount exceeding twenty-five per cent per annum, or twenty-five cents on a one dollar share, in any one year.

SEC. 6. In all cases where taxes, penalties and damages standing against a member of the Corporation shall amount to one dollar on the share, in the aggregate, and remain unpaid for the space of six months, such shares shall become forfeited to the Corporation, and the owner in case he owns no share or shares other than the share or shares so forfeited, shall thereafter be excluded from all right, title and interest in said corporate property, and cease to be a member of said Corporation. Nor shall any one dollar share be divided so as to entitle the holders to more than one vote.

SEC. 7. The Chairman shall preside in all legal meetings of said Corporation. He shall put all questions, receive all the votes and declare the result in open meeting, and perform all the other duties of Chairman of said meeting.

SEC. 8. The Secretary shall record the articles of association, the Constitution and By-Laws, make a catalogue of all the books of the Corporation, and a list of the names of the members thereof, and the number of shares owned by each member, and record the proceedings of the directors, shall notify the annual and all other legal meetings by posting up notifications at the Library and at each of the agencies, at least ten days previous to the days appointed for the meetings, stating in said notices the business to be acted on, and shall put the time of day for all annual meetings at 12 o'clock, at noon, at the Library, and shall keep the records open for the inspection of the members of said Corporation, and give copies thereof (if required so to do,) upon payment of reasonable fees. He shall also notify all special meetings of said Corporation in manner aforesaid, upon the request in writing, signed by at least five qualified voters to him, directed, stating the objects of the meeting and the business to be transacted.

SEC. 9. No vote shall be passed in any meeting of said Corporation for the disposing of the corporate property, or making a tax, unless mention be made and notice thereof be given in the notifications posted up for said meeting. And all money received into the treasury for taxes, fines, or penalties, shall go to replenish the Library. And no debts shall be contracted by the officers of the Corporation, nor no money be drawn from the treasury unless the same be so ordered by a vote of the Corporation. And it shall be the duty of the auditors and Chairman to make a report in writing, to the said Corporation, of the standing of the Library, and of the corporate property annually, on the first Monday of June. And all books belonging to said Library shall be returned to the Library on the last Monday of May annually.

SEC. 10. The Librarian as Treasurer of said Corporation, shall receive, and hold all money belonging to said Corporation for their use, and keep a regular account thereof, and from whom, and on what account the same was received, and of all money by him paid out, and to whom paid, and for what purpose, nor shall he in any case pay out any money from the treasury unless so ordered by a vote of said Corporation; and shall generally do and execute all the duties of Treasurer, and conform and be subject to all the By-Laws that shall be made and passed from time to time, by said Corporation, in conformity with law and this Constitution.

SEC. 11. The Librarian shall attend, or leave a substitute at the Library on the first Monday in each month of every year, from ten o'clock in the forenoon, to two o'clock in the afternoon, and at the same hours of the day on the last Monday of May, in every year, to attend to the receiving in, and delivering out of books ; and shall at all times, except in library hours, keep the books arranged in proper order ; and shall have the power of determining what shall be each members proportion of books to be taken out from the Library ; and shall have authority to visit all the agencies, and give orders concerning keeping the records of said agencies. The Librarian as Librarian and Treasurer, shall have the charge of the Library, and property of the Corporation, shall make a catalogue of all the books belonging to said Library, and shall keep a regular account of the times when books are taken out, and by whom taken, and when returned, with the penalties and damages, (if any) attached thereto, together with a list of the names of the members of the Corporation, with the number of shares of each set against their several names, and shall generally do and execute all the duties of Librarian, and conform, and be subject to all By-Laws, which shall from time to time be made, and passed by the Corporation in conformity with law and this Constitution.

SEC. 12. The Directors, (two of which shall constitute a board) shall attend at the Library during the hours of receiving in, and assess the damages (if any) and immediately thereupon return said assessment under their hands to the Librarian, and shall from time to time fix the number of members that shall have permission to take out books from the branches or agencies, and the number and kinds of books to be placed there, from time to time, and transmit a copy of their names and a catalogue of the books to the Librarian, and also a copy of the names of said members and a catalogue of the books assigned to that agency, to the Agent Librarian. They shall also have power to fix the days, and times of day, that the agent Directors shall attend at the branches or agencies, for receiving and returning books assigned to the agency to and from the Library ; and shall have the general control over the agent Directors in the performance of their duties, as agent Directors. And the said Directors shall conform and be subject to all By-Laws that shall be made and passed from time to time, by the Corporation in conformity with law and this Constitution.

SEC. 13. Reading rights in said Library may be sold at the Library, at a price not exceeding one cent, for the use of a book for one week under such rules and regulations, as shall hereafter be prescribed by the Corporation.

SEC. 14. The Auditors shall previous to the time of holding the annual meetings for the election of officers in each and every year, audit the accounts of all persons who may be chargeable with the property and effects of the Corporation. And they, together with the Librarian shall make a report to said annual meetings of the situation of the Library, and corporate property, as is provided for by the ninth section of this Constitution.

SEC. 15. All members of the Corporation shall at all times while continuing to be members, as well as those who shall have ceased to be members in consequence of their shares having become forfeited, be liable to the Corporation in an action of debt, for all penalties incurred, and standing against them unsatisfied ; and moreover shall be liable to the Corporation in all proper actions for all damages remaining unsatisfied ; and for the books by them taken out of the Library and not returned within the time prescribed by this Constitution or the By-Laws of the Corporation, and for all other property and effects of the Corporation which shall have come to their hands and possession, and which has not been returned by the time their right to hold it ceased ; to be sued for and recovered in the name of the Treasurer, for the use of the Corporation.

SEC. 16. All officers of the Corporation, on ceasing to hold their offices, shall return all the books and papers pertaining to their offices, together with all the property and effects of the Corporation in their hands and possession, to their successors in office. And on neglect or refusal so to do, they shall be liable to the Corporation therefor, in all proper actions, to be sued for and recovered in the name of the Treasurer, for the use of the Corporation.

AMENDMENTS.

In all cases when amendments or alterations of this Constitution shall be proposed, the proposed amendments or alterations shall be presented in writing by some member of the Corporation, to the chairman, which shall be by the chairman read in open meeting, and if a majority of the voters present, in person or by proxy, are in favor of the proposed alterations or amendments, the further consideration thereof shall be postponed to some future time, not less than three months, and notice shall be ordered to be posted up by the Secretary, of said proposed alterations or amendments, and the time of the meeting for action thereon, as shall be in said order directed to be done; and then if said alterations or amendments shall be approved of by three-fifths of the voters present in person or by proxy, the same shall become a part of this Constitution.

At a meeting of the FOSTER MANTON LIBRARY SOCIETY, holden at the School House in School District No. 8, in Foster, on the 19th day of January, A. D. 1848, it was voted that the foregoing Constitution be adopted as and for the Constitution of said FOSTER MANTON LIBRARY SOCIETY, and ordered to be recorded.

BY - L A W S

OF THE FOSTER MANTON LIBRARY SOCIETY.

For regulating the election of officers of said Corporation, and defining their duties, and for the better preservation of order and good government among the members thereof, and for the management of said Library, and the property and effects of said Corporation, it is enacted by the Society as follows.

SEC. 1. At the Annual meetings of said Society, the first business to be transacted shall be to elect the officers, and in the order named in the Constitution — And all other business which shall be transacted in all meetings shall be taken up and acted on in the order mentioned in the notices for the meetings.

SEC. 2. All Members of said Corporation shall have a right at all times on the first Mondays of each and every month during library hours, either in person or on the application of a member of his own family by verbal order, or upon the application of any person in his behalf with a written order, to take out his proportion of books from the library or its agencies. And heirs, parents and guardians of minor children owning shares in said library, shall be entitled to the right to take out their portion of books from the library or agencies on the same days and hours aforesaid. And all such members, heirs, parents and guardians, shall be held responsible for the return of the books in good order, by the first Monday of the next succeeding month, by 2 o'clock in the afternoon, to the place from where the books were taken out. No person shall have a right to take the same book he last returned if any other member applies for it in library hours: In all cases when two or more persons entitled to books shall apply at the library or its agencies for the same book, and the case cannot be settled between them, they shall ballot for it, and the one that draws a book in controversy shall be entitled to it. Provided always that no member who has begun a set of volumes where they are connected, shall be prevented from persuing them by any other person taking out the next succeeding volume to the one he last had, if he applies for it during library hours.

SEC. 3. All persons who shall take out books from the library or any of its agencies, shall be obliged to keep the books neat and clean, and shall not allow them to be lent to persons not residing in their families, nor suffer them to be carried into schools. And they shall be liable to the corporation for all damages done to books, between the time of taking them out, and of returning them to the place from where they were taken, that shall be assessed against them by the directors or agent directors, and they shall not have a right to take out books from the library or its agencies, until all damages standing against them shall be paid and discharged.

SEC. 4. The penalties for not returning books taken from the library or its agencies, to the place from whence the same were taken out, by the first Monday of the next succeeding month, by 2 o'clock in the afternoon, and on each and every other return day after the hour expires for returning them, shall be as follows viz.: For each book not returned, Five Cents. And for each day's neglect, after that time, One Cent. But all persons taking out books as aforesaid shall have liberty to return said books on any day after the time for returning the same expires; but in such case they shall not be entitled to take out books from the library or its agencies again, until the damages (if any) have been assessed, and such damages and penalties are paid and discharged. The fine for lending books or suffering them to be carried into a school, shall be on conviction, Ten Cents.

SEC. 5. The books assigned to the agencies shall be removed from the library to the agencies, by the agent librarians, on the first Mondays of June, September, December and March. And be by them returned to the library on the first Mondays of September, December and March, and on the last Monday of May by ten o'clock in the forenoon, on each return day.

SEC. 6. The Agent Librarians shall attend at their agencies or leave a substitute on the first Mondays of every month in the year, from ten o'clock in the forenoon to two o'clock in the afternoon, for the receiving in and delivering out of books, excepting the months of June, September, December and March they shall attend from 3 to 7 o'clock in the evening for delivering out books, and on the Saturday, preceeding the first Mondays of September, December, March, and the last Monday of May, they shall attend from 4 to 8 o'clock in the evening, for receiving in books. And they shall at all times except in library hours, keep the books in their charge arraigned in proper order, and shall have the power of determining what shall be each members proportion of books to be taken from their agencies. And they shall keep a regular account of the names of all persons to whom they deliver books, the time when taken out, and returned, with the number of each book, with the penalties and damages (if any) attached thereto, that shall be assessed by them and the other Agent Directors, as agent directors. He shall have authority to receive all penalties and damages from the persons against whom the same shall be standing in full discharge thereof. And shall return said account together with all money in his hands received as aforesaid, belonging to the Corporation with the books on the next return day (of the books assigned to his agency) to the Library. The Agent Directors shall attend at their agency on the days and hours of receiving in and delivering out of books, and inspect the books received in, and assess the damages (if any) shall be found to have been done to them since they were last taken out.

SEC. 8. Reading rights shall be sold by the Librarian at such prices as the Directors shall determine on from time to time; and such right shall not be transferable; and the holder of reading rights, shall take out only from the place where it was purchased for. And when a right is purchased, the Librarian shall enter the name of the purchaser in the books of the Corporation, together with the nature and extent of said right. And when a right is purchased for a privilege to take out books from either of the agencies, the Librarian shall give a certificate to the purchaser, defining the time the right is to run, the number of books to be taken out at a time, directed to the agency where the books are to be taken from and returned. And the certificate, or the substance thereof, shall be recorded by the agent librarian, in the books of the agency.

And the holders of such reading rights shall be liable to the Corporation for neglecting to return the books by them taken out, by the time specified; and shall pay as a penalty for every such neglect to return a book, the sum of Five cents, and one cent a day for each day's neglect thereafter, to be recovered in an action of debt in the name of the treasurer, for the use of the Corporation; and shall be moreover liable to the Corporation for all damages done to the books taken out, while in their charge, and for the value of the books if they are not returned after the time expires for returning them, in all proper actions which shall be commenced against them by the Corporation. And they shall not again be entitled to hold reading rights in said Library or any of its agencies, until all such penalties and damages standing against them shall be paid and satisfied.

SEC. 9. The Secretary shall insert in the notice of the Annual meetings, to take into consideration the appointment of some suitable person or persons to lay out all the funds that are or may be received into the treasury for the ensuing year, in books to replenish the Library. And in the year A D 1851, and each year after, he shall insert in the notice of the Annual meeting, to take into consideration the subject of taxing the shares.

At a meeting of the FOSTER MANTON LIBRARY SOCIETY, holden at the School House in School District Number 8, in Foster, on the 19th day of January, A. D. 1848, it was voted that the foregoing bill or draught of By-Laws be passed and established as the By-Laws of the FOSTER MANTON LIBRARY SOCIETY, and ordered to be recorded.
